

Who is this Jesus whom we celebrate on this day?

John 1:1-4: "In the beginning the Word already existed. The Word was with God, and the Word was God. He existed in the beginning with God. God created everything through Him, and nothing was created except through Him. The Word gave life to everything that was created, and His life brought light to everyone."

John 1:14: "And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth."

For what purpose did God send Jesus to this earth?

John 3:16: "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have eternal life."

As we celebrate Christmas on this day, let's remember the reason why He came to this world, and focus on the great joy that this world received a Savior, God incarnate, who came to this world humbly as a man. He lived to show us the way to salvation, He paid the price we owed through suffering on the cross, and died so that those who believe in Him, repent of their sins and commit to follow Him, the WORD of GOD, could be redeemed and inherit eternal life.

A Blessed Christmas to all and may the Light of Christ inhabit your heart and spirit!

You may reproduce part of the content of this website for non-commercial purposes only. May not be reproduced or featured on any other websites without permission of "Christ At The Helm" author. For additional information or to obtain permissions, contact: christatthehelm1@gmail.com