

This great celebration of the Resurrection of Christ should remind us all that it is the door that God opened for people to inherit eternal life, through belief and the acknowledgement of the sacrifice that Christ paid for our sins.

In John 11:25-26 Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live. And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die."

The reason Rom 8:11 states, "But if the Spirit of Him who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, He who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit who dwells in you."

Rom 6:4 adds, "Therefore we were buried with Him through baptism into death, that just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life."

Through Christ's resurrection, believers are renewed from spiritual death to life, as Jesus said in John 6:40, "And this is the will of Him who sent Me, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him may have everlasting life; and I will raise him up at the last day."

Let's truly celebrate Christ's resurrection today; reminding ourselves that in conquering death, He opened the door to salvation and eternal life to all who truly believe in Him wholeheartedly!

You may reproduce part of the content of this website for non-commercial purposes only. May not be reproduced or featured on any other websites without permission of "Christ At The Helm" author. For additional information or to obtain permissions, contact: christatthehelm1@gmail.com